NAMES IN THE NEWS.....

By Maria Martinez

Jesse Jackson holds one's eyes when addressing an audience if he is interested in that person, but since such sighting is an element of public speaking, he need not be particularly interested, using the seeming concentration to judge the degree of audience attention....William D. Manns, Esq., hosted Congressman Peter Rodino at his 972 Broad Street penthouse, and this set political tongues wagging. Has Rodino chosen Manns as a successor to be groomed when Rodino gives up his long held office?

Terris Browning Smith, who won good dollars in an employee suit, spent some on a recent tour of London, Paris and Germany. There she took in the fashion houses, implementing her already luxury wardrobe. Now a grandmother, she adores the baby of her daughter, Terry Browning Dixon of the Boston area and Long Island...Popular Cordell Cooper, Essex County Freeholder hopeful, chairman of East Orange Dem party and leading figure in the annual E.O. Cotillion, also happily wedded to a new wife, is on the official Dem line for freeholder, posed in a striking hands-raised action foto with Pearl Beatty, Larrie W. Stalks and other Freeholders at Pearl's recent candidate party at Hilton Gateway.

Elton Hill, the at-large candidate for Freeholder is opposing the present four at-large Freeholders for election in the June 5 primary. If one studies the 47-page booklet by the League of Women Voters, titled: "This is Essex County" one can see where Elton Hill, with his vast knowledge of government business and his degrees from such institutions as the Wharton School of Business and other universities, would fit in very well on the Freeholder Board.

Although County Exec Peter Shapiro administrates eight divisions of County government, the Freeholders have the power to O.K. or rule against his actions, including supervising the budget. There are five elected and four at-large members. The eight departments of County government, directed by Shapiro and backed by the Freeholders include Administration and Finance, Hill's specialit; Citizen Services, Law Department, Economic Development, also a Hil speciality; Health and Rehabilitation, Public Works, Parks and Recreation, and Public Safety.

It is not generally known but the County rules some major streets in the City of Newark and elsewhere, such as Bloomfield Avenue, also certain bridges and also cooperates in weather forecasting.

Another candidate is Clara Dean of Newark who is contesting Beatty's spot from the 2nd District. Also running is Bernice Davis. She suffered the fate of dropped Corrina Kay when Bernice was a Dem Freeholder. Off she went from the line and now is back as a GOP seeking the return of her old position.

“LET’S STAND UP”

Jesse Jackson is "hot" on the Presidential Trail....if every Black person in the United States contributed one dollar, yes I did say $1.00, can you imagine what that would amount to? It certainly would help the cause.

The Rainbow Continues To Grow

JESSE JACKSON'S STATEMENT ABOUT NEW JERSEY

New Jersey is a key state in the 1984 Presidential Primary. It is one of the last states to hold a primary election, and its 122 delegates will play a vital role in the selection of the Democratic candidate for President of the United States.

Historically, the people of New Jersey have been involved in the struggle for justice and freedom, and since early times this has been a Rainbow effort. New Jersey was the scene of much of the work of the legendary Harriet Tubman. Lawnside, a town populated by Black people in Camden County, was one of the Underground Railway stations in the state. The great Paul Robeson was raised and educated in New Jersey. Significant civil rights struggles, such as the Trenton Six case in the early 50's, were carried on by coalitions including whites, Blacks, trade unionists, and grass roots organizations.

Today New Jersey, while small in area, is representative of the problems faced by the people of our nation. Here we have both migratory farm laborers, and urban dwellers stifled by lack of jobs, substandard housing, and denial of opportunity. We have small farmers and small business owners struggling against odds to retain their means of livelihood in the face of disastrous Reagan economic policies. We have peace activists looking desperately for a way to bring nations together and avert nuclear annihilation. We have environmentalists struggling for the right to breathe clean air, drink unpolluted water, and not have their bodies destroyed by toxic wastes. We have many elderly spending the twilight of their lives in squalid surroundings, uncared for. We have women demanding the right to be equal partners in the pursuit of self-fulfillment. In short, we have all of the elements of the Rainbow Coalition — Blacks, Hispanics, women, peace activists, environmentalists, gays, young people, elderly, small farmers and business owners, the unemployed and underemployed, poor people, and we have in this state the kind of leadership that is bringing these elements together, to turn the old minorities into the new majority of brothers and sisters working for a more just society and a peaceful world.

Ken Gibson, Mayor of Newark, had the courage and foresight to run for Governor of this state in the Democratic Primary of 1981, and his very fine showing, unexpected by those who do not understand the dynamics of coalition, paved the way for this presidential contest in New Jersey.

The Democratic Primary on June 5 will be a demonstration of how this new coalition works. We look forward to victory in New Jersey, both in the popular vote and the delegate contests.

COORDINATOR EXPOSES MISUSE OF JESSE JACKSON NAME

Clarence Coggins, State Coordinator for the Jesse Jackson for President Committee, released a letter sent by State Chairman Kenneth A. Gibson to the City Clerk of Newark, and the County Clerk of Essex, denying the use of the Jesse Jackson name to a group of insurgent democrats in the City of Newark. Mr. Coggins stated, "The people of New Jersey are not to be fooled by the divisive tactics used in Pennsylvania and Alabama, where local Blacks sold out their birthright by deceiving the voters into thinking they were for Jesse Jackson, when in reality they were supporting Mondale delegates. This County Committee slate that seeks the use of Jesse Jackson's name is backed by James Benjamin of the AFL-CIO, which has endorsed Mondale, and Curtis Grimsley, who is a delegate candidate on the Mondale ticket."

Coggins continued, "It is crystal clear that the number of groups that claim that they are for Jackson but separate themselves from the official Jackson committee are guilty of the lowest form of deceit. They are practicing the dirty tricks of the Republican Party that led to the resignation in disgrace of President Richard Nixon and plunged the country into an abyss of dark misgivings in regard to American politics and politicians in general. Jesse Jackson's candidacy has been a ray of light in this dark void, and it is ironic that these demagogues should seize upon his name as an instrument to befuddle the voters. There is but one campaign for Jesse Jackson, and one slate of delegates entitled to bear its name."

New Orleans, here we come!!! Blacks will really be doing it to death in '84. In conjunction with the "LOUISIANA WORLD EXPOSITION" being held from May 12, 1984 until November 14th, fabulous tours of the southland can be arranged. Visit friends and relatives and while you're doing it, support black business. Blacks have a vested interest in the fair, and this event promises to be a tremendous economic development boost for black entrepreneurs such as Loony B'loons, Fair Cookies, Pichou Catering Services, and Perkins & Planners. Visit the beautiful Black History Complex. See Black history being made.

Don't forget EPCOT and ORLANDO. For children you say. Wrong!!! While there are many, many displays and pavillions for the youngsters, the young-at-heart will never forget the marvelous experiences and the new worlds that will be opened to you. The future holds more wonders than the mind can imagine and EPCOT and ORLANDO will let you explore these worlds to your heart's content.

But if you're into just plain old fashion relaxing, grab a wonderful, fun-filled CRUISE from either New York or a southern city and let the world go by in a most fantastic way. A cruise can be one or two days, a full week, and up to 90 days. Cruises cover just about any area, the Caribbean, Mexico, Hawaii, Alaska, and the good old Mississippi. Your cruise can also be in conjunction with any of the vacation
